THE TRAGEDY OVER.

WM. H. HARVEY HANGED FRIDAY MORNING AT GUELPH.

CALM AND UNCONCERNED.

AN INEXPERIENCED HANGMAN BUNGLES HIS WORK.

The Condemned Man Has Nothing to Say
—Details of His Last Night on Earth
Two Treasures That He Wishes to Be Buried With Him His Son's Letter of Forgiveness The Procession to the Scaffold—A Scene that Made the Blood Run Cold—Witnessed by One Hundred Spectators.

GUELPH, Nov. 30.—Wm. H. Harvey was hanged in the yard of the Wellington County Jail at 8 o'clock this morning. He made no speech, and was cool, calm and collected to the last. He was apparently the last interested of all present. The neck was not broken when the weight fell, and for five or ten minutes he struggled slowly, gasping horribly. His body convulsed in agony.

The morning broke grey, chilly and cheerless. As early as 6:30 people began gathering at the jail, a few newspaper reporters first, then citizens and medical men. Harvey passed a quiet night, he slept calmly and peacefully. Several times through the night he awoke and asked the time, requesting the death watch on each occasion to arouse him at 5 o'clock this morning. He showed neither fear nor trepidation, but seemed resigned, and declared himself ready to go. His breakfast this morning consisted of three eggs, coffee and three thin slices of dry toast. At 7 o'clock venerable Archdeacon Dixon, of this city, entered the jail, wrapped from head to foot in a flapping cloak, to hide the full canonical vestments of the English Church. He repaired at once to Harvey's cell, and passed three-quarters of an hour in prayer. At about 8 o'clock Mr. A. M. Kim entered the cell, and remained with the condemned man to the last. A few minutes before 8 the turkey from the Toronto jail, who superintended the hanging arrangements, pinioned Harvey's arms, and the cartegelfit for the gallows, Rev. Geo. B. Cook of Acton, marched at the head. Behind him came Archdeacon Dixon, reading the solemn death service of the church. Then Harvey, with his arms pinioned, walked with downcast head and steady step beside Sheriff McKim. Governor Mercer and one of the guards brought up the rear. Harvey took his place on the gallows and a solemn hush fell on the 100 spectators in the yard. Boys and men pressed in over the high wooden house-top. A snow flake or two descended down the grey gloom of the chill morning. Harvey was the central figure of the whole, and seemed the most unconcerned person present. As Archdeacon Dixon paused for a moment, Sheriff McKim asked, "Have you anything to say?" Harvey replied distinctly, "I have nothing to say." The two deacons recited the last prayer, then impression sentence at 8:01. The hands adjusted the noose and pulled the black cap over Harvey's head at 8:02. He strapped the legs a second later. He cut the rope, and the drop fell. Then ensued a horrible scene. The noose had been improperly adjusted. The knot was placed beneath the jaw, instead of under the chin, two inches out of place, and the neck was not broken by the fall. Harvey lying there gasping and slowly strangling before the eyes of the horrified spectators. For just ten minutes his convulsive kicking and awful gags for breath continued. Then life left him. The body remained hanging for eighteen minutes longer. At 8:30 it was cut down, and returned to the jail. The body showed no signs of the awful agony through which he must have passed. Calm and still forever, it was as peaceful as the face of one who sleeps. In his left hand, fastened to the middle fingers by a strip of cloth, were two papers—the one a letter from his son giving the father for his son, the other the two lines of his last will and testament. He had signed the will by his own hand, and his signature was as clear and legible as any happy returns of his birthday, and reading "Father, I love you." By his side, too, those will be buried with him. The hanging at the bagnoya was cause of delay and woe by sympathy of the law men. The hangman is a half-baked young man of 22, who lives twenty-eight miles from Guelph. Had he done his duty, the drop would have been successful. Harvey's neck would have been snapped in a second. The drop would not perform. He continued to hang impotently by the noose from the Toronto jail, who superintended the arrangements for the hanging of Harvey. Its height had been increased by about four inches, giving Harvey a foot and a half. In the eight minutes from the drop to the time when the noose was cut, the time will be but 1 in the last yard, as required by law, or whether the Ontario Government will pass an order in council allowing them to be interred by friends alongside of the graves of his murdered wife and children, was the wish of Harvey and his son.

The Attorney General has telegraphed Sheriff Kim that Harvey's body may be given to his friends.

MURDER CURIOSITY.

The dead a scaffold upon which Wm. H. Harvey attained the curse of his wife and two daughters this morning was erected yesterday afternoon. It is placed at the south east corner of the jail yard, where it is impossible for those outside the massive walls to obtain a view of the awful deed. There is a section of the public possessed of a morbid curiosity to witness the ceremony of launching a criminal from earth to eternity. They are here in Guelph as elsewhere. The sheriff was besieged by all sorts of applicants to the scaffold, but, acting on the spirit of the law governing modern State executions, Mr. McKim decided to limit passes to the members of the press and the jail officials. The friends of the doomed man are pleased at this humane decision, and the prisoner also expressed himself as satisfied. The walls were guarded by the police.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Five Philadelphia Children are Consumed by Devouring Flames.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—The bakery of Gustave Gross, at Second and Huntingdon streets, was destroyed by fire this morning and five persons were burned to death. These were: Gustave Gross, aged 11; Bruno Gross, aged 5; George Bitner, aged 6; Ida Bitner, aged 6, and Annie Bitner, aged 5. Mrs. Gross and Mrs. Joseph Bitner were seriously injured. Four other young children and two Bitner children were rescued by a fireman. The families occupied rooms over the store. The rapid spreading of the flame shut off their escape. The financial loss was small. The fire is supposed to have been due to a defective flue.

John McCutcheon, printer.

When Igoe's house was set on fire on the fourth floor of the Tribune building and Igoe on the seventh floor.

After a moment pause he said to the New York operator: "Go ahead, Chandler."

New York began sending again and after a brief space yielded to Cleveland, who sent the following:

"CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 30.—Capt. Jos. McGuff, a well-known lake captain, was killed to-day by falling into the hold of his vessel."

Just then Igoe "hunked" ("Boys" he ticked on the wire, and there was another brief pause, and all the men on the circuit were listening with interest for they had noted in the transmission by Igoe of the word "boys" a treacherous touch of just the right kind determined to be used in the human voice.) "Boys, I've got to stay up tight. I'm the only one left on this floor. Everybody is gone and I can't stay any longer." The work went on again and no one of Igoe's listeners thought seriously of his good-bye until there came bulletins of loss of life, and among them one stating the probability that poor Igoe had stayed too long. The last 200 words he had remained to take cost him his life. He jumped from the seventh story window. He leaves a family.

The next Igoe "hunked" ("Boys" he ticked on the wire, and there was another brief pause, and all the men on the circuit were listening with interest for they had noted in the transmission by Igoe of the word "boys" a treacherous touch of just the right kind determined to be used in the human voice.) ### SELECT RIGHT.

In making up the list of newspapers for which you intend to subscribe for the coming year care should be taken to select no papers that are likely to introduce in the home any injurious principle. For instance, a paper may in respect to the arrangement, quantity and scope of its news, be a first class paper, but may in other respects be very bad in its tendencies. Its advertising columns may contain announcements which should never reach the attention of the young, and its editorial columns may be unsound when dealing with the evils of the liquor traffic. Many of the papers are on the side of the rum power. Though they may not be its open advocates they are against Prohibition, which is just about the same thing. They will keep harping on the delusive string played by or for the rummies—"Prohibition cannot be enforced." So long as that delusion is seemingly assented to or in any way countenanced by Temperance men, a part of their influence is against their principles. Hence care should be taken to introduce in the home only such papers that advocate principles you can thoroughly endorse. Let the young folks read the newspapers, but see that they are the right kind. Take your home paper as a matter of course. Put down THE PROGRESS first on your list, and then add such others as you desire, being guided by your past experience to select only such as you can fully endorse as generally on the right side in all moral principles.

TRUE BLUES.

For the fourth time in ten years the city of Fredericton in New Brunswick has pronounced in favor of the Scott Act. The Bluenoses away down by the Atlantic know how to sustain a good thing when they have it. A few days ago on a repeal vote the Act was sustained by a majority of 63, an increase over the previous vote. Pressure for time prevents further particulars this week.

The Canadian Horticulturist improves every year, both in appearance, illustrations, colored plates and reading matter. Every fruit grower, gardener and farmer should have it. The editor is a practical fruit grower, and the other writers are the leading practical gardeners and fruit growers in Ontario. One dollar, addressed to the editor, Grimsby, Ont., secures this monthly the interesting Annual Report of the Fruit Growers, and a choice of plants for testing.

The Christmas number of the Toronto Globe is a really excellent production of Canadian mind and Canadian press. The fine colored plate, "The Canadian Militia," showing the uniforms of the different branches of the Canadian service, is remarkable for its absolute fidelity, beauty of arrangement and perfect execution. The other presentation plate "Our friends," is a sweet home picture, clever in conception and delightfully executed. The whole number is handsomely embellished by many other beautiful illustrations of Canada's matchless scenic wealth in all the moods of her changing seasons and many tempered climate. The best minds in the field of Canadian literature are represented in its pages of letter press. Its stories, sketches, poetry, etc., will bear comparison with those of the best magazines anywhere. Price 50 cents a copy, may be procured through the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall.

In the Dominion Illustrated for December 7 the series of Canadian Industries is continued—the works of the Montreal Rubber Company forming the theme of an article and a number of illustrations. This is a feature of our pictorial contemporary that ought to be extensively taken advantage of by our manufacturers. The view of the Brand Memorial, Victoria Park, Brantford, will be prized by all friends of the aboriginal tribes and by all admirers of the brave and loyal chief who fought for Canada and the Empire. There are also some other views illustrative of Brantford's progress. Military circles will enjoy the P. E. I. Winning Team, and sportsmen will appreciate Mr. Munin's Fox Hounds. The rest of the number is up to the usual high standard.

ELLISBORO.

A most successful entertainment on behalf of the English church funds was given at the Public Hall, Ellisboro, on Thursday evening, 5th December. The Rev. F. V. Baker, brought his stereopticon lantern and gave a varied exhibition of views and pictures entitled "East and West" introducing scenes and adventures in the old world and the new. Several friends contributed appropriate songs and a pleasant evening was brought to a conclusion by singing God save the Queen. The result added $10.75 to the church funds.

NINE CORDS OF WOOD IN TEN HOURS

By one man may appear to some as an unlikely story, but a machine now manufactured which has proved such a feat is possible. It can be carried folded on a man's back, saws down trees and transversely without causing backache. 25,000 now in use and the demand is constantly increasing. Apply Folding Sawing Machine Co., Chicago, who will send illustrated catalogue containing testimonials from hundreds who have saved from 4 to 9 cords in a day. A new invention for filing saws accompanies each machine; same can be had separate. With this tool anyone can file a saw better than an expert can without it.

The Qu'Appelle Medical Hall has opened a splendid assortment of new Christmas goods. Be sure to call and secure your presents at right prices.

IRRITABLE PEOPLE.

People are often irritable by reason of some exasperating skin disease which destroys comfort and good humor. Salt Rheum, nettle rash, erysipelas, pimples, scald head, etc., are of this nature; they arise from bad blood and can be cured by using Burdock Blood Bitters according to directions.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

The practice of cremation is spreading rapidly in Italy. There are 14,347 policemen in London, and 14,367 hacks.

The Austrian archbishops are the most highly paid in the world. A subterranean chamber has been discovered under a house on the hillside at Naples.

Reports come constantly from St. Petersburg of the ever increasing use of narcotics drugs as fuel.

A Vienna man of science has published statistics showing that one smoker contracts diphteria to three non-smokers.

Diamonds have blazed in English society this year as never before. They have even appeared in profusion in morning entertainments.

The shah's famous emerald is described as too big for effect, being about the size of an ordinary watch and exactly like a bit of green grass.

In Australia there are nearly 347,000 more males than females. Including New Zealand and Tasmania, the excess of males over females is 301,900.

At the workmen's congress in Paris the delegates from the Cooks' Trade union from Alsace protested that cooks should be treated as workmen, not as domestics.

The English Lord's Day Observance society has begun a vigorous effort against the cheap Sunday travel offered to the public by the various railways running out of London.

A paper on the sardine read by M. Boucher before the Paris Academy of Science expresses the opinion that it is a young fish which has not attained its full development.

According to The Drijenvalk, a paper published at Saratoff, Russia, there is living there a man who is 140 years old. His name is Daniel Samoiloff, and he was born at Saratoff in 1749.

The White Hart, of Southwark, one of England's most famous inns, whose history goes back five centuries, is being pulled down. It has been associated with Jack Cade and Mr. Pickwick.

Great Britain and Ireland's estimated population is 35,000,000, and the public revenue for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1888, was $449,011,270.

The greatest house in London before long will perhaps be Lord Portman's proposed reconstruction of Woolsey's famous palace at Hampton court.

The Rome Opinion, a semi-official organ, says that there is an understanding between Italy and England whereby their combined fleets would be used against France if necessary.

The Chinese tuckies came into England with the restoration and became so large, costly and popular that at one time their manufacture gave employment to 4,000 people in Birmingham alone.

An ingenious contrivance is about to be brought out by Capt. Woodward, of the royal mail steamer Dor, by which it is proposed to do away with ours as a means of propelling ship's lifeboats.

A Bombay newspaper announces two marriages, in one case the bride being aged 2 years and in the other 15 months, while the bridegroom was 30. This is the system which Pundita Ramabai is struggling against.

A mania for monograms now pervades London. They figure everywhere—on window curtains, portieres, carriage rugs, furniture and drinking glasses, and even on jewelry. The fashion is stupid and will not last long.

The famous Schiller archives, which were long kept at Castle Grünstein, were presented recently to the Grand Duchess Sophie of Sachsen-Weimar, by the nephew of Schiller, the Freiherr Ludwig of Gleichen-Ruswurm.

Good work beyond doubt must be credited to the Medical Missionary Society of China. In Canton during the past year the society attended to 30,412 cases and performed 2,839 surgical operations at an expense of only $1,637.

A fall-storm in Villerfranche, Piedmont, was of such enormous stones that more than one hundred persons were badly hurt, and a boy and girl had their skulls fractured. The weight of some huldenstones was estimated at two pounds.

One thousand six hundred people have been burned to death at Su Chow, China, making a half down stupendous calamity in the Celestial empire in as many months. Even the Chinese do not seem to grow very excited over such occurrences.

It is stated that about five hundred veterinary surgeons in Great Britain have signed a paper condemning overcoat check reins as dangerous to the health of the horse. It distorts the windpipe, and is liable to cause paralysis of the muscles of the face, apoplexy, coma and inflammation of the brain, all these resulting in shortening the life of the horse.

The largest cut diamond in the world is now at the Paris exposition. The Prince of Wales recently christened it the "Imperial." It was found in South Africa in 1885, and was taken at once to Amsterdam, where it was cut and polished for a year and a half. The "Imperial" formerly the largest known diamond, weighs 130 carats, and is valued at 12,000,000 francs. The "Imperial" weighs 180 carats, and is valued at from 15,000,000 to 17,000,000 francs.

DON'TS.

Don't wear tight clothing of any sort. Don't hang your Mackinaw in a warm place.

Don't affect horizontal stripes if you are short in stature.

Don't confound a very tight glove with a well fitting glove.

Don't carry a silk umbrella at the middle. Use the handle always.

Don't wear an elaborately patterned vest with a Prince Albert coat.

Don't sit cross legged if you wish to preserve the set of your trousers.

Don't wear pronounced effects in down stripes if you are tall and slight.

Don't though some men with pretensions to style do—wear a high hat with a neck coat.

Don't put on a collar which has just been remodeled, without examining it for raw edges.

A CONCISE EPITOME OF THE WORLD'S HISTORY FOR A WEEK.

The Great Preserver.
Miss Trimount—And to think that after all these years of you, you should be so much later in the race! One would suppose it would have dried up long ago.

Miss Kornpaskin—Yes, that's so. But then, you know, it has heaps of salt in it, and pays for the way salt preserves things is wonderful.—New York Sun.

Honesty Pays.

Clerk—Could you let me off today, sir?
Employer—Going to a funeral?

C—No, sir. I'm going fishing in the forenoon and to the ball game in the afternoon.
E—All right. You can go. And here's some dollars to enjoy yourself with.—Boston Courier.

Reporters.

Mr. De Duke—Aw—me good fellah, me gig's gone out. Have you a match favor?

Uncle Si—Wal, I dunno. It'd be hard to find a match for that. I've a jackass in the barn, mebbe he'll do.—Minsey's Weekly.

Mixed Pickles.

Customer in clean restaurant—Waiter,
bring me a napkin, please.

Waiter—All in use at present, cap, but that chap with the heavy mustache eating soup over there will be through with his soon.
—Hotel Mai.

Intelligence Not Wanted.

Man summoned as juror—I am employed in an intelligence office.

All the attorneys at once—Your honor, we challenge this juror for cause.—Chicago Tribune.

Very Verdant.

Hiram—I thought that if I lay down in the grass you couldn't find me.

Cousin (who had been hunting for him)—I did find hard to distinguish you.
The grass is so green.—Drake's Magazine.

Sting in Learning's Temple.

Johnny Bithers—Who was hit the teacher in the eye?

Tommy Sanders—Don't give it away. It was a little private snap of my own.—Judge.

HINTS FOR WINTER.

When attacked by a cough or cold,
hor-cess, asthma, bronchitis, croup or influenza, the successful experience of thousands of families who have used it regularly for all such troubles during many years suggests the use of Hayzard's Pectoral Balsam—the old reliable household favorite.

C. P. R. EXCURSIONS.

The C. P. R. intimate excursions to Montreal and stations west thereof in Quebec and Ontario, on Nov. 11th, 18th and 25th, Dec. 2nd, 9th, 16th and every day thereafter till 23rd inclusive, also on January 6th, 7th and 8th at $49.80 for the round trip. Tickets are good for 90 days and have stop over privileges.
The limit can also be extended for 15 days on payment of $5 and for 15 days on payment of $10 and for month on payment of $10.

The price for the excursions, east $49.80 mentioned above, are for tickets from Qu'Appelle. Parties intending to take advantage of these excursions should leave their name two days before starting, with Mr. E. W. Warner, local agent, in order that ample accommodation
may be provided.

Arrangements have been made that holders of excursion tickets reading by C. P. R. can obtain round trip tickets at single fare from Montreal to all points in maritime provinces. This will be a grand opportunity for our maritime province friends to visit their old homes.

FOUND AT LAST.

For many years I suffered from croup but at last found a remedy for it in Hayzard's Yellow Oil, so that I am now free from croup entirely and recommend Yellow Oil to all others who suffer from the same disease.

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE.

The Newest Fads and Fashions in Household Goods.

The "hot potato" and "hot roll" napkins represent one of the newest fads in fancy napery, and are simply hemstitched and decorated squares of linen. For a potato napkin, the words "hot potato" are worked in outline diagonally across one corner; in the remaining corners are worked potato blossoms or initials, according to fancy. Corn and roll napkins are similarly decorated with appropriate designs.

Picture towels have small patterns, such as bird's eye or a tiny clover, or any leaf scattered thickly over the surface.

The newest fashions in toweling are the all round borders and hemstitching, which take the place of fringe. These fringeless towels strike one somewhat oddly at first, but they spare the laundry trouble in straightening out the fringe on fine towels.

Hemstitching is very popular on all household linens, bedspreads, pillows and sheet shams and bedsheet sheets, as well as lunch and tea cloths, napkins and doilies. For the larger pieces the hem is about two inches wide.

A new ornamentation for linens, and one which is much admired, consists of strong, handsome open work embroidery. It appears on table runners, covering cloths and doilies, and on pillow shams and spreads.

In spite of a fair amount of embroidery, the newer colored bed spreads and bolster covers, white spreads and shams continue to be the popular thing, and the most elegant of the top sheets and shams are either beautifully hand embroidered or ornamented with the handsome open work already mentioned, or exquisitely hemstitched.

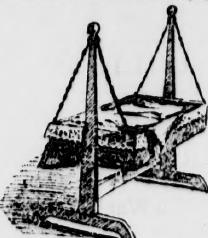

A Pretty Nest for the Baby.

Among appropriate and useful gifts that would make the cause of "a little stranger in the house" most welcome, is a tiny cradle, such as is shown in the cut.

The body of it is an oblong, shallow basket of wickerwork, such as grocers receive bottles packed in. This may be covered with a coat of pretty enamel paint, light blue or cream colored being very attractive.

The wood work is much after the fashion of a clothes frame. The shape of the pieces of wood are all designed to fit in the picture. These are cut from one and a quarter inch stuff and are about two feet long.

There is a mortise cut in the middle of the top of each to receive the tenon of the upright pieces which is dipped in glue, driven into place and then secured by wooden pins driven through holes made for that purpose. The uprights are of hard wood, about four feet high, and are cut to taper from bottom to top, where they are each finished with a pretty brass ball. The cross pieces that unite the twined pieces is mortised into the uprights near the bottom, and firmly held with glue and hardwood pins as already described. This cross piece should be at least six inches longer than the basket, so that there will be room for the baby to swing freely. The basket is double lined with a thin muslin lined over pink or blue silk and edged with lace. When hung with brass chains to the wooden frame it makes as charming a nest for the baby as one could wish to see.

Cleaning Men's Clothing.

The process of cleaning men's and boys' clothing is perfectly simple, though laborious and unpleasant. Diagonal, casuarine and straight materials will stand washing, but if a soap, which is very strong, is used, it will very quickly become dirty or soapy. This is the best way to clean and refresh it up. It is the way the professional soucers do it. First, make a strong soap-suds with clean warm water. Never wash clothes in water that has been used for other things, as it will make it lousy. Soaps the garment up and down in the suds and rub out all dirty places and gross spots. If very dirty, then lay it out on several waters as warm as the suds and lay it up to dry. When almost dry, roll it up for an hour or so, then press it.

The secret of pressing without having the goods look shiny is to put a piece of old muslin between the goods and the iron and to take the iron without fail before the steam comes from the cloth. There are bad wrinkles of course, put a wet cloth over them and press with a hot iron, and forgetting to lift off the iron when the full heat of steam is rising, so that the nap of the cloth will be lifted.

Home Made Champagne Cider.

A knowledge of long experience, writing to The World, tells us she can make champagne better than any other, a delicious beverage for pies or puddings or any purpose for which brandy is usually used in cooking. Take three gallons of new cider, before fermentation has commenced, and bring it to a boiling heat, skimming the scum as fast as it rises. Pour the cider into the tub in which it is to stand to ferment, and add either white sugar, either brown or white. Stir well till the scum is dissolved. Cover with a thin cloth. When a thick foam is gathered all over the top, skim it off and fill or bottle your cider, cork tightly and keep in a cool place in the cellar.

WHAT SHALL WE WEAR?

PRACTICAL INFORMATION IN RELATION TO AUTUMN STYLES.

The Surprise Costume for Travellers by Rail or by Steamer—A New Style in Hair Dressing—Dresses for the Little People.

The costume shown in the cut has been appropriately named "The Surprise," and it is a most convenient arrangement, as the wearer can travel by rail or steamer in what looks like an ordinary traveling dress, and then, by turning back both jacket and skirt, an extremely dressy toilet is disclosed.

Black silk stockings and black kid shoes are for babies learning to walk.

Dark purplish red shades, such as dahlia and rosewood, are largely imported in rich silks and ribbons, and in velvets for dresses and bonnets.

Solid colors prevail among the new wool fabrics for fall wear, a special feature being the trimming that accompanies each dress pattern.

Sold colors prevail among the new wool fabrics for fall wear, a special feature being the trimming that accompanies each dress pattern.

The row of large rings represents the name of an animal "furnished with spines or quills upon the body, covered with sharp prickles, a native of Asia, Africa, Italy, &c." The second row of seven rings, a species of deer of elegant shape, though one of the smallest kind. The next row of seven, the plural of an animal allied to the weasel, inhabiting the northern portions of Europe and America. In winter the fur is white, but the tip of the tail is intensely black throughout the year. Third row, the plural of an animal of the cat kind, found in Asia, Africa, Italy, and America, found on our western prairies. It has been so much hunted and killed that it is feared it will become extinct. Fifth row, an animal of several species found in North and South America. An artifice it employs in self preservation is to feign itself dead. Sixth row, a strong, fierce animal of the cat family, destructive to lambs, poultry and the like. Seventh row, an animal of tropical America, living on ants.

No. 629.—Riddles.

Why is the root of the tongue like a dejected man?
Why are fowls the most economical thing a farmer can keep?
What is the key to good manners?
Who had the first free entrance into a theatre?
What trees have no effect upon?

Who Wears the Ring?

A neat trick, requiring no apparatus beyond a piece of paper and a pencil, is the following:

The number of persons participating in the game should not exceed nine. To one of the company is selected unknown to you to put a ring on one of his fingers. You now say you will tell (i) who wears the ring, (2) the hand it is on, (3) the finger of the hand, and (4) the joint of the finger.

The company being seated in regular order, the persons must be numbered 1, 2, 3, etc. The thumb must be termed the first finger, the forefinger being the second. The joint nearest the extremity must be called the first joint; the right hand is one and the left hand two.

These preliminaries arranged, leave the room in order that the ring may be placed unobserved by you. Suppose that the third person has the ring on the right hand, third finger and first joint. Your object is to discover the figures 3, 3, 1. Return to the room, ask one of the company to whom we credit the following artifices of operations:

i. Double the number of the person who has the ring; in the case supposed this will produce: 6.

2. Add 15 ..... 11
3. Multiply by 5 ..... 55
4. Add 10 ..... 65
5. Add the number denoting the hand ..... 66
6. Multiply by 10 ..... 660
7. Add the number of the finger ..... 668
8. Divide by 10 ..... 66.8
9. Add the Number of the joint ..... 66.81
10. Add 3 ..... 66.84

He must appear you of the figures produced, 66.84. You will then, in all cases, subtract from it 6.55. In the present instance there will remain 6.131, denoting the person No. 3, the hand No. 1, the finger No. 3, and the joint No. 1.

Senior and Junior.

The use of "Jr." is simply to denote the younger of the same name. In the case of uncles or grandfathers residing in the same community it would be a convenience for all concerned (where the name is the same to have the younger grandfathers use "Jr." while the elder pass as "Uncle" or "Grandpa." The significance of 1, 2 and 3 is simply to denote different persons of the same name. In congress, when two or more members of the same name appear on the list, the name of the state each comes from is printed within parentheses. Where there are more than two of the same name in a family 1, 2 and 3 are sometimes used.

A Well Conceived Beacon.

Miss Plautengen Do Vore—That man's attentions to me are most offensive, and he has the reputation of being a fortune hunter. Do you suppose it is papa's wealth that allures him?

Miss Dolly Flicker thoughtfully—Why, what else can it be?—Life.

QU'APPELLE.

—Good sleighing.

—Fine snow storm Wednesday.

—Christmas cards at any price you want them at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall.

—Remember the lecture by Rev. A. Andrews in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening.

—All the holiday goods at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall are just the thing for Christmas and New Year's presents.

—The largest and best assorted stock of wall paper ever brought to Qu'Appelle has just been opened at the Medical Hall.

—Mrs. Guerin fully sustained her reputation at her entertainment last Friday evening. There was a good attendance.

—It is with sorrow that we record the death on Sunday last of Mr. N. H. Hinds, who was respected by all who knew him. His funeral on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended.

—The annual entertainment of the Presbyterian Sunday School will comprise a Christmas tree together with a musical performance by the children of a Cantata entitled "The Little Gipsy," to be given on Monday evening, 23rd inst.

—Rev. Father Duchesneau, of the Grand Seminary, presented Rev. Father Montrouli this week with three nice pictures for the R. C. church. They were framed by Mr. J. B. Robinson. The pictures and frames are very handsome.

—The open meeting of Qu'Appelle Council, R. T. of T., advertised for last Monday evening, was postponed on account of the death of Mr. N. H. Hinds, who was a member of the Council. The meeting will likely be held in January.

—The Methodist Sunday School will hold their anniversary on Wednesday evening, the 25th inst. (Christmas night), in the church. The program will consist of singing, recitations, dialogues, etc., concluding with Santa Claus distributing the presents from the Christmas tree. Parties are invited to use the tree to give presents to their friends. They may be left with the Superintendent of the school, Mr. W. E. Bell, and Mr. J. B. Robinson.

—Buy your Christmas presents at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall.

—Rev. Mr. Ferry will hold service in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

—Fancy goods, dolls, toys, etc. suitable for Christmas presents at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall.

—Rev. Father Montrouli would be obliged if people would not water cattle at the R. C. church well.

—Attention is directed to the announcement by the Qu'Appelle Cricket Club of a theatrical performance, in other columns.

—A meeting of the bachelors of Qu'Appelle will be held at the Queen's Hotel, on Friday, the 20th inst., at 20 o'clock for the purpose of selecting a committee for their second annual ball.

—The Indian Head Skating and curling club will hold a grand opening carnival on Wednesday evening, 18th inst. Ice reserved for skaters in costume from 19:30 till 20:30. Admission 25 cents.

—Through an error Mrs. J. P. Beauchamp's name was omitted from a local item in our last issue. It should have read "A handsome and rich tabernacle veil was presented to Rev. Father Montrouli on Wednesday by Mrs. J. P. Beauchamp. It was made by herself in moire antique and gold fringe."

—Rev. Alfred Andrews, formerly stationed here, will deliver a lecture on "Friendship" in the Methodist church here on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst., commencing at 20 o'clock. This is a new lecture just prepared by Mr. Andrews, and we bespeak for it a full house. No doubt his numerous friends will be glad to see him once more. A collection will be taken up at the close in aid of the parsonage fund. It is a long time since the Methodists have appealed to the Qu'Appelle public to support any kind of entertainment for the benefit of church funds, and doubtless they will on that occasion receive a generous patronage.

WHAT IS WANTED

Is something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exist. Burdock Root Bitters meets every indication expressed above.

THE CRADLE.

MURPHY.—At Moosemin, on the 8th inst., the wife of Sheriff Murphy of a daughter.

THE ALTAR.

GRAY.—POLLOCK.—On the 11th inst., by the Rev. John Tzelzland, at the residence of the bride's sisters, Qu'Appelle, Thomas Edward Gray and Margaret Pollock, both of Qu'Appelle.
